

Across the Great Divide – Kate Wolf

Stewart lead vox, Hamish harmony

[D] I've been walking [G] in my [D] sleep
[A] Counting [Bm] troubles 'stead of counting [G] sheep
Where the [D] years went [A] I can't [Bm] say
I just [G] turned around [A] and they've gone [D] away [G]
[D]

[D] I've been sifting [G] through the [D] layers
[A] Of dusty [Bm] books and faded [G] papers
They tell a [D] story [A] I used to [Bm] know
And it was one that [G] happened [A] so long [D] ago [G] [D]

Chorus [all]:

[D] It's gone away [G] yester- [D] day
[A] Now I [Bm] find myself on the mountain- [G] side. [stop]
Where the [D] rivers [G] change [Bm] direction
[G] Across [A] the Great [D] Divide

[D] Now, I heard [G] the owl a- [D] callin'
[A] Softly [Bm] as the night was [G] fallin'
With a [D] question [A] and I [Bm] replied
But he's [G] gone [A] across the border- [D] line [G] [D]

Chorus [all]

[D] The finest hour [G] I have [D] seen
[A] Is the [Bm] one that comes bet- [G] tween
The edge of [D] night and the [A] break of [Bm] day
It's when the [G] darkness [A] rolls a- [D] way [G] [D]

Chorus Twice [all]
