Intro: [D]

[G] [D] [A7]. [G7]. [D]. [A7]

Deep [D] down in Louisiana close to New Orleans
Way [D] back up in the woods among the evergreens
There [G] stood a log cabin made of earth and wood
Where [D] lived a country boy named Johnny B. Goode Who [A7] never ever learned to read or [G7] write so well, but he could [D] play the UKULELE like a [A7] ringin' a bell. Go...o...

CHORUS

[D] Go go, Johnny go go
[D] Go go Johnny go go
[G] Go go Johnny go go
[D] Go go Johnny go go [A7] go [G7]
Johnny B. [D] Goode... [A7]

He used to [D] put his UKULELE in a gunny sack
and [D] sit beneath the trees by the railroad track.
The [G] engineers could see him sitting in the shade
[D] Strummin' to the rhythm that the drivers made
[A7] People passing by... would [G7] stop and say
Oh [D] my but that little country boy can [A7] play. Go...o...

CHORUS

instrumental (as intro - over a verse)

His [D] mother told him "someday you will be a man"
And [D] you will be the leader of a big ole' band
[G] People will be coming from miles around to [D] hear your UKULELE till the sun go down
[A7] Maybe someday your name will [G7] be in lights
Sayin' [D] 'Johnny B. Goode to [A7] night'. Go...o...

2 X CHORUS

to finish on [D]
