

LADY LUCK - The Proclaimers

(D) I got some bills this morning (F#m) they tumbled through the door

(G) I counted every penny but (A) the bills still came to more

(D) And written in the paper (F#m) for Pisces it did say

(G) If you would just be bolder (A) then this could be your day

Chorus

It said (D) Lady (D7) Luck apolo-(G)-gizes, for the (Gm) way she's been beha-(D)-ving but she promises she'll (A) change (A7) If (D) you don't wanna (D7) know her she'll (G) understand, but if you'd (Gm) like to take her (D) hand, she will (A)be back at your (D)command

(D)So I ran round the corner, (F#m) the bookies there I entered

(G) Put ten quid on a mare (A) from a stud in Kildare

(D) And though the jockey beat her, (F#m) in Belgium they will eat her

(G) The tannoy began to rip (A) as I tore up the slip

Chorus

(D) I met a girl this evening (F#m) and I began to think

(G)That I might get her drunk but (A) she matched me drink for drink

(D) So when she drew the curtains, (F#m) I felt success was certain

(G) But as she kicked me out, (A) she spoke in the third person

Chorus x 2 -----2nd time last line dramatic end

.... If (D) you don't wanna (D7) know her she'll (G) understand, but if you'd (Gm) like to take her (D) hand, she will (A)be back at your (G)command (DDDDD>>>>))))
