Intro: [F] [Bb] [C] [Bb] [F] [Bb] [F]

In the early morning [C] rain ... with a [Bb] dollar in my [F] hand [Bb] [F]
With an aching in my [Bb] heart ... and my pockets full of [F] sand [Bb] [F]
I'm a long way from [Gm] home ... [C] Lord, I miss my loved ones [F] so
[Bb] [F]

In the early morning [C] rain ... with [Bb] no place to [F] go [Bb] [F]

Out on runway number [C] nine ... big 70 [Bb] 7 set to [F] go [Bb] [F]
And I'm stuck here in the [Bb] grass where the pavement never [F] grows

Now, the liquor tasted [Gm] good ... [C] and the women all were [F] fast
[Bb] [F]

There she goes my [C] friend ... she'll be [Bb] rolling down at [F] last

In-betweenintro: [F] [Bb] [C] [Bb] [F] [Bb] [F]

Hear the mighty engine [C] roar ... see the [Bb] silver wing on [F] high

She's away and westward [Bb] bound ... far above the clouds she'll [F] fly

Where the morning rain don't [Gm] fall ... [C] and the sun always [F]
shines [Bb] [F]

She'll be flying o'er my [C] home ... in a- [Bb] bout three hours' [F] time

In-betweenintro: [F] [Bb] [C] [Bb] [F] [Bb] [F]

This old airport's got me [C] down ... it's no [Bb] earthly good to [F] me

And I'm stuck here on the [Bb] ground ... as cold and drunk as I can [F] be

You can't jump a jet [Gm] plane ... [C] like you can a freight [F] train [Bb]
[F]

So I'd best be on my [C] way ... in the [Bb] early morning [F] rain [Bb] [F]

You can't jump a jet [Gm] plane ... [C] like you can a freight [F] train [Bb]
[F]

So I'd best be on my [C] way ... in the [Bb] early morning [F] rain
